

This document cites a website [1, example.com]. Another reference points to [2, wikipedia.org].

You can also cite the same URL again [1, example.com] to see deduplication in action.

Cited URLs

The enumeration correspond to the citations in the text.¹

1. <https://example.com>^{a, b}
2. <https://www.wikipedia.org/wiki/LaTeX>

¹This is a nonstandard citation style chosen for convenience. It allows quick referencing without the overhead of managing a `.bib` file, which can be cumbersome and time-consuming in this context.
